-AT THE-

There is a solitary little Chinese woman aboard the transport Meade and she cannot come ashore. It is the duty of the Customs inspector who is on guard at the Waikiki end of the Pacific Mail wharf to see that the woman does not land here.

She can speak a few words of English, and yesterday an Advertiser reporter interviewed her concerning her presence on a United States Army transport. Formerly she made her home in the Philippines Islands, whither she had gone from China with her people. When the transport Logan returned to San Francisco from a trip to Manila she had aboard an Army officer and his wife and children and the Chinese woman who is now on the Meade. The Chinese woman was employed by the officer's wife as a nurse to the children.

She became very much attached to the officer's family and proved herself to be a faithful and trustworthy servant. Upon the arrival of the Logan at San Francisco the nurse went ashore with the officer's family and remained in the city with them for several days. It was the intention of the officer's wife to always keep the Chinese woman as a servant in the family. But the authorities learned that the Chinese woman had no right to enter the country, and the woman was taken in charge and is now being sent back to the Philippines on the Meade. She was almost heart-broken at being forced to leave the officer's wife, who had been very kind to her, and the children, to whom she had formed a very great affection.

At present the Chinese woman is doing duty as a nurse to some of the children on the Meade. On Sunday, not knowing that she would not be allowed ashore, she walked down the gangway in company with a negro nurse, who was carrying a small child, intending to take a walk with them around town. She was sent back aboard the ship, however, by the Customs inspector, who was on watch at the time, for it would have been against the law to allow her to land.

She is well liked by the passengers and is particularly popular among the children. But she will never forget how she was obliged to part from the family with whom she went to San Francisco on the Logan.

AZTEC HERE WITH MULES.
Early yesterday afternoon the United States Army transport Aztec, from San Francisco, was sighted and a little while before the 5 o'clock whistles blew she was moored alongside the Pacific Mail wharf and immediately commenced to discharge her live stock.

The Aztec is a bulky boat and a great carrier. Her hold is full of supplies for the Army in the Philippines. On three decks she carried 439 mules and 21 horses, including one private horse and twenty of the finest draft horses that were ever sent to the Philippines.

Acting Quartermaster Graham is in charge of the transport. He is accompanied by his wife and his sister-in-law, Miss Kent, Captain G. G. Trask commands the ship; Dr. V. Balkam is in charge of the live stock; Dr. Schlager is the physician aboard. Officers of the vessel, other than the captain already named, are First Officer Hanson, Second Officer Carlson, Third Officer Standen and Chief Engineer DeMingue.

The Aztec sailed from San Francisco on December 1st, about an hour after the Meade left. She experienced a pleasant passage as far as weather was concerned but she has a reputation as a heavy roller and lived up to it thoroughly during the trip down. She even rolled at the wharf last evening as an Island steamer went out and created a gentle swell.

The live stock will be given a rest ashore for about a week and then the transport will resume her journey to the Philippines.

ALBION ARRIVES FROM COAST.
The little steamer Albion arrived in this port yesterday after a voyage of thirteen days from San Francisco. She brought cold storage freight for the new meat market to the extent of about 600 tons.

The Albion is especially fitted for the carrying of frozen cargoes. She will in all probability make many more trips to this port with supplies for the local market. The new market, in the Waverly block, opens for business on Saturday.

A great many shipping men had a look at the Albion yesterday, discussing her merits and demerits. She is a little larger than the James Makee and not as large as the Nihau.

KAULANI SAILS AGAIN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—With a better stowing of her cargo the new bark Kaulani sailed again yesterday for Honolulu and Captain Dabel expects to make the voyage without further mishap. The vessel had sailed early Friday morning on her first trip to the islands but after getting outside the Heads was found to be topheavy as a result of having taken on a lot of heavy iron and bricks over the other freight, and Captain Dabel brought her back to port.

STEAMSHIP COMPANY SUEB.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—In the Superior Court at Seattle the Alaska & Pacific Steamship Company, operating the steamer Robert Dollar, has been sued by Julius Gocker to recover $9,735. It is alleged that fourteen tons of perishable freight were shipped by Gocker on the steamer, bound for Nome, and that on account of negligence on the part of the men on the steamer the freight was spoiled.

SICK SOLDIERS LANDED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—All the sick and disabled soldiers brought from Manila and Nagasaki by the transport Thomas, as well as the prisoners and insane soldiers, were taken from the vessel yesterday and landed at the Presidio and Alcatraz Island. Later the Thomas went to her berth at Folsom street wharf, where the discharged soldiers and the few remaining passengers were landed.

SIERRA'S MAIDEN TRIP.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—For several days the new steamer Sierra has been taking on coal and preparing for the trip to Sydney. Much of the interior furnishings of the vessel has been taken out since her arrival from New York, after her long trip from Philadelphia, but they will be replaced and additional furnishings put in before she sails on December 12th. Nearly all the passenger accommodations on the steamer were engaged before her arrival.

will be little space to spare when the new vessel leaves for her maiden trip. Before her departure, it is expected, the Sierra will be thrown open to the public for inspection. The Sonoma, second of the Oceanic Company's new steamers, will arrive within a few weeks from Philadelphia, in command of Captain Hayward.

The steamer Robert Dollar, which on two or three occasions had a rough experience while in the north, has reached port from Astoria, where she had put in to repair a broken steam pipe.

The British gunboat Icarus, from Esquimalt, left yesterday to resume the cruise along the southern coast. The brig J. D. Spreckels, soon to sail for Guam with a cargo of merchandise for the Western Commercial Company, is on the Spear street dry dock.

GENTLEMEN:—It affords me great pleasure to say, that our iron roof, 1,400 square yards, covered by your "Arabic" Compound is very satisfactory. The heat under our roof before you painted it, was almost unbearable, now it feels like an ice house compared to what it was. It is more than 15 DEGREES COOLER. I can recommend the "Arabic" to those who want cool iron roofs.
